

Digital Styling *Most Popular

With this package, virtual looks will be created that reflect your personal style and meet your style needs (as discussed in your consultation). Upon creation of the looks, a digital lookbook will be sent to your email that will include direct links to the items for purchase, while keeping your specified budget in mind.

- Starting at $50
- Total price is dependent on your styling needs and the number of looks required which will be discussed during the consultation
- Looks are sent for you to review via email before the final lookbook is created
- Final lookbook with links to each item is sent upon payment of invoice

Personal Shopping

With this package, I will visit different thrift shops to curate looks based on the style needs highlighted during our consultation. All the items purchased will be shipped to you in a style box with a guide that explains how you can style each of the pieces and which items are to be paired together.

- Starting at $75
- Total price is dependent on your styling needs and the number of items required which will be discussed during the consultation
- Total price will include price of clothing
- Please allow 7 days from the date of invoice payment for me to shop for your items and 3-5 business days for it to arrive
